---ooOoo---

I, C. W. Morse, Presiding Judge and Judge Pro Tem. of the said court, who tried the above entitled action, hereby certify that the bill of exceptions consisting of the attached papers, the transcript of evidence and proceedings in said case as contained in twelve typewritten volumes entitled the above entitled case and numbered I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, X A, and XI as described in the certificate of Justin R. Davis, the stenographer, attached hereto, and all the documentary evidence and exhibits referred to in said transcript of said testimony and proceedings or offered or received on the trial of said cause, (said transcript, documentary evidence and exhibits being by reference made a part of said bill of exceptions, the same being too large and cumbersome to attach hereto) contains all of the testimony and all of the evidence given and introduced or offered upon the trial of said cause, and all of the objections and motions made with respect thereto, and all of the rulings of the court upon said objections and motions and all of the exceptions to such rulings, and particular reference sufficient to identify all of the documentary evidence and other exhibits given and introduced or offered upon said trial.

WHEREFORE, the bill of exceptions as above described is allowed, settled, signed, sealed and filed as the bill of exceptions in the above entitled cause.

Dated this 23rd day of September, 1921.
